Since opening in 1981 the hospital has been a leading private hospital. In 2008 and our current significant redevelopment, we have become the most advanced private hospital. Join us and you can be part of the team realising this very exciting ambition.

An exceptional team giving exceptional care

Bupa Cromwell Hospital has a community of very dedicated staff. Some have been here for many years; others have come more recently, attracted by the opportunity to work with leading clinicians in complex care, especially in our specialist areas of cancer, cardiac, paediatrics and surgery.

It's our exceptional personal service that makes Bupa Cromwell Hospital different to other hospitals. We follow a set of Values to make sure that every patient receives exceptional service. We also support each other by treating our colleagues with the same level of care.

Investing in your future

Whether you have a clinical or non-clinical background, we will help you develop your career. We offer specialist in-house and external training to enhance your skills and there are opportunities for internal transfers to give you the widest possible experience. We want our people to be the best trained, the best equipped and the most supported health professionals in the industry.
