Find a doctor or specialist to meet your needs.

We have many health professionals available to meet your needs. These groups are:

General Practitioners (GPs)

General Practitioners are usually your first point of contact. If you need to see a GP, you can book an appointment with them or, if you need to see a specialist, you can refer yourself to a specialist. For more information, see our General Practitioners page.

Specialist Consultants

As the title suggests these are specialist doctors who are referred to a consultant by a GP, but they can also refer you directly to a specialist.

Other Health Professionals

This category covers the other professionals providing associated services, such as speech and language therapy and nutritional advice.
