Mr Gordon McArthur, Consultant Plastic Surgeon

Full name: Mr Gordon McArthur

Qualifications: FRCS (Plast), FEBHS

Title: Consultant Plastic Surgeon

Biography: Mr McArthur was born and educated in Scotland. His basic surgical training was completed in Edinburgh and Glasgow. He then relocated to London to train in Plastic and Hand Surgery. In London, he was trained by some of the UK’s leading Plastic Surgeons. His training was completed with specialised fellowships at Great Ormond Street Hospital and the Royal Marsden Hospital.

Mr McArthur has a specialised interest in both adult and children’s hand surgery. This includes acute injuries as well as chronic conditions. Mr McArthur has a wide range of experience including the treatment of professional sportsmen and musicians.

Languages spoken: English

Regular Cromwell clinics: Yes

Clinic days: Mon, Tue, Wed, Thurs
Year qualified: 1999

Memberships: British Society for Surgery of the Hand, British Burns Association, Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh

NHS hospitals: Chelsea and Westminster

Research interests: Evidence based interventions in hand and plastic surgery

Key published papers:

Website

Media coverage:
Our health professionals regularly contribute to hospital publications, as well as national newspaper articles and television coverage.